HAVE YOU WRITTEN A HIGH-QUALITY PAPER FOR ONE OF YOUR SOCIOLOGY CLASSES?

Submit your paper to the Annual Sociology Student Paper Awards Competition

Awards will be given for the top undergraduate and graduate papers

Deadline for submission: Friday, March 8th

Papers can be submitted to the Sociology Office (815 Zulauf Hall) or emailed to the Student Awards Committee (jkidder@niu.edu). Specify the course (name and number) and professor for which the paper was completed.

Winners will be announced at the beginning of April. There will be an awards brunch to recognize the winners on Saturday, April 20th.

---

OUTSTANDING STUDENT AWARDS!

Every year the Sociology Department recognizes its outstanding undergraduate and graduate students.

We are accepting nominations for the following awards:

Frances Rowe Katz Award for Social Justice
Provides modest funds to support academic scholarship, research, and/or writing of a master's thesis

James L. Massey Award for Social Justice
Rewards a graduate student or undergraduate senior in sociology who is actively involved in social justice and community activism

David P. Street Memorial Fund Award
Provides modest financial assistance towards education expenses to undergraduate major in sociology

Submit your nominations for the outstanding student awards to the Student Awards Committee (jkidder@niu.edu).

Provide detailed information for why the student represents an exemplary candidate for the award. Self-nominations are allowed.

For more information go to: www.niu.edu/sociology/scholarships